(Entered as second class matter April 21, 1911 at the post office at Estancia, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879.)

The Society page of last Sunday's Albuquerque Morning Journal, is one of the most unique ever published. No doubt the "Near Society" notes were read with as much gusto as the usual page of Society Notes, not only by the ladies but the men as well. The boys on the staff certainly proved themselves equal to the task.

A Dutchman, addressing his dog, said: "You was only a dog, but I wish I was you. Ven you go mit de bed in, you shust durn round dree dimes und lay down. Ven I go mit de be in, I haf lock up de blace und vind ub de clock und put de cat oud und undress myself, und my wife vakes ub und scols me, den de baby cries und I haf to walk him up and down; den maybe ven I shust go to sleep it's dime to getub again. Ven you get ub you shust streeth yourself und scratch a couple of dimes und you vas ub, I haf to light de fire, put on de kettle, scrap mit my wife already maybe get some breakfast. You play round all day und have plenty of drouble. Ven you die, you was dead; ven I die I may haf to go to he'll yet.—Ex.

Nurse Says

"I know what is good for young and old people," writes Mrs. Clara Dykstra, a trained nurse of South Bellingham, Wash., "and will say that I consider Cardui the best medicine for girls and women. It makes them feel like new persons, relieves their pain and regulates womanly troubles. Both my daughter and I received great benefit."
